PART 1
PRELIMINARY

- 1 The regulations contained in Table A in the Companies (Tables A to F) Regulations 1985 (as at 20 November 1997) shall, except as provided in these articles and so far as not inconsistent with the provisions of these articles, apply to the company to the exclusion of all other regulations or articles of association. References in these articles to regulations are to regulations in Table A unless otherwise stated.

THE HOLDING COMPANY

2. In these articles, the "holding company" means Lloyds TSB Group plc (registered in Scotland under number 95000) or any of its successors or any person (including a company) to whom it assigns rights to exercise powers reserved in these articles to the holding company

SHARES

3. For the purposes of these articles, references to "the preference share" mean one cumulative floating rate preference share of £1, references to the "series II preference shares" mean the 6% non-cumulative redeemable preference shares of £1 each, and references to the "series III preference shares" mean the preference shares of 25 pence each, the preference shares of US 25 cents each, the preference shares of €25 cents each, and the preference shares of ¥25 each.

- 4 (1) Subject to section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 (the "Act") and the consent of the holding company, all unissued shares shall be at the disposal of the directors and they may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to the persons, at the times, and on the terms which they think fit.

- (2) (a) Pursuant to and in accordance with section 80 of the Act, the directors shall be generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise during the period of 5 years (or such other maximum statutory period from time to time) from the date of adoption of these articles all the powers of the company to allot relevant securities up to an aggregate nominal amount of the authorised capital of the company for the time being created and unissued, and
(b) by that authority the directors may make offers or agreements which would or might require the allotment of relevant securities after the expiry of that period.
- (3) Section 89(1) of the Act shall not apply to the allotment by the company of equity securities.
- (4) Words and expressions defined in or for the purposes of section 80 or section 89 shall bear the same meanings in this article.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

- 5 Any share may at any time be transferred to Lloyds TSB Group plc or to any subsidiary of Lloyds TSB Group plc. Otherwise, the directors may in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason refuse to register any transfer of shares (whether fully paid or not)

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 6 At a general meeting, but subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy (or being a corporation present by a duly authorised representative) shall have one vote, and on a poll every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder. Regulation 54 shall not apply.

- 7 An instrument appointing a proxy (and, where it is signed on behalf of the appointor by an attorney, the letter or power of attorney or a duly certified copy thereof) must either be delivered at the place or one of the places (if any) which may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to the notice convening the meeting (or, if no place is specified, at the registered office) at least one hour before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used or be delivered to the secretary (or the chairman of the meeting) on the day and at the place of, but in any event before the time appointed for holding, the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll. The instrument may be in the form of a facsimile or other machine-made version and shall unless the contrary is stated on it, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates. An instrument of proxy relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment of it) having once been delivered for the purposes of any meeting shall not require again to be delivered for the purposes of any subsequent meeting to which it relates. Regulation 62 shall not apply.
- 8 In the case of a member which is a corporation, the signature of a director or a secretary of it or its attorney or authorised representative, and in the case of joint holders of a share the signature of any one of the joint holders, shall be sufficient for the purposes of signing a written resolution on behalf of the member or joint holders and regulation 53 shall be modified accordingly

DIRECTORS

- 9 Subject as later provided in these articles, the directors shall not be less than two in number. The company may by ordinary resolution from time to time vary the minimum number and from time to time vary and/or fix the maximum number of directors. Regulation 64 shall be modified accordingly.
- 10 (1) The ordinary remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by an ordinary resolution of the company and shall (unless the resolution otherwise provides) be divisible among the directors as they may agree, or failing agreement, equally, except that any director who shall hold office for part only of the period in respect of which the remuneration is payable shall be entitled only to rank in the division for a proportion of remuneration related to the period during which he has held office. The directors may repay to any director all reasonable expenses which he may incur in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or of any committee of the directors or general meetings or otherwise in or about the business of the company. Regulations 82 and 83 shall not apply.
- (2) Any director who holds any executive office, or who serves on any committee of the directors, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director, may be paid extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise or may receive other benefits which the directors may determine

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

- 11.(1)
- (a) For the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, the directors shall have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a director under that section to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a director or indirect interest¹ that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company.

¹Neither the duty in s 175(1), nor the authorisation procedure under s 175(s) applies to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company. The disclosure and approval provisions of articles 11(2) and 11(3) are intended to deal with such conflicts.

- (b) Authorisation of a matter under this article shall be effective only if:
 - (i) the matter in question shall have been proposed in writing for consideration at a meeting of the directors, in accordance with the board's normal procedures or in such other manner as the directors may determine.
 - (ii) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question and any other interested director (together the "interested directors"), and
 - (iii) the matter was agreed to without the interested directors voting or would have been agreed to if the votes of the interested directors had not been counted.
- (c) Any authorisation of a matter under this article shall extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised.
- (d) Any authorisation of a matter under this article shall be subject to such conditions or limitations as the directors may determine, whether at the time such authorisation is given or subsequently, and may be terminated by the directors at any time. A director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him by the directors pursuant to any such authorisation.
- (e) A director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any matter authorised by the directors under this article and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating thereto shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.

- (a) Subject to compliance with Article 11.(2)(b), a director, notwithstanding his office, may have an interest of the following kind:
 - (i) where a director (or a person connected with him) is a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested (including by the holding of shares) in any relevant company;
 - (ii) where a director (or a person connected with him) is a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with a relevant company, or in which the company is otherwise interested.
 - (iii) where the director (or a person connected with him) acts (or any firm of which he is a partner, employee or member acts) in a professional capacity for any relevant company (other than as auditor) whether or not he or it is remunerated therefor;
 - (iv) an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
 - (v) an interest, or a transaction or arrangement giving rise to an interest, of which the director is not aware,

- (vi) any matter authorised under article 11.(1)(a); or
- (vii) any other interest authorised by shareholder resolution.

No authorisation under article 11.(1) shall be necessary in respect of any such interest.

- (b) The director shall declare the nature and extent of any interest permitted under article 11.(2)(a), and not falling within Article 11.(2)(c), at a meeting of the directors or in the manner set out in section 184 or 185 of the Companies Act 2006
- (c) No declaration of an interest shall be required by a director in relation to an interest
 - (i) falling within articles 11.(2)(a)(iv), (v) or (vi);
 - (ii) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of such interest (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware). or
 - (iii) if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his service contract (as defined in section 227 of the Companies Act 2006) that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors, or by a committee of directors appointed for the purpose under these articles.
- (d) A director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any relevant company or for such remuneration, each as referred to in article 11 (2)(a), and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.
- (e) For the purposes of this article, "relevant company" shall mean
 - (i) the company;
 - (ii) a subsidiary undertaking of the company;
 - (iii) any holding company of the company or a subsidiary undertaking of any such holding company.
 - (iv) any body corporate promoted by the company; or
 - (v) any body corporate in which the company is otherwise interested.

11 (3)

- (a) Save as provided in this article, and whether or not the interest is one which is authorised pursuant to article 11. (1) or permitted under article 11(2), a director shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution in respect of any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal, in which he (or a person connected with him) is interested. Any vote of a director in respect of a matter where he is not entitled to vote shall be disregarded
- (b) A director shall not be counted in the quorum for a meeting of the directors in relation to any resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

- (c) Subject to the provisions of the statutes, a director shall be entitled to vote, and be counted in the quorum, in respect of any resolution concerning any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal.
 - (i) in which he has an interest of which he is not aware.
 - (ii) in which he has an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
 - (iii) in which he has an interest only by virtue of interests in shares, debentures or other securities of the company, or by reason of any other interest in or through the company;
 - (iv) which involves the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity to the director or any other person in respect of (I) money lent or obligations incurred by him or by any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings, or (II) a debt or other obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
 - (v) concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (I) in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities; or (II) in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate.
 - (vi) concerning any other body corporate in which he is interested, directly or indirectly and whether as an officer, shareholder, creditor, employee or otherwise, provided that he (together with persons connected with him) is not the holder of, or beneficially interested in, one per cent or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of the relevant body corporate;
 - (vii) relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees or former employees of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees or former employees to whom such arrangement relates;
 - (viii) concerning the purchase or maintenance by the company of insurance for any liability for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors;
 - (ix) concerning the giving of indemnities in favour of directors.
 - (x) concerning the funding of expenditure by any director or directors on (I) defending criminal, civil or regulatory proceedings or actions against him or them. (II) in connection with an application to the court for relief, or (III) defending him or them in any regulatory investigations,
 - (xi) doing anything to enable any director or directors to avoid incurring expenditure as described in article 11.(3)(c)(x),
 - (xii) in respect of which his interest, or the interest of directors generally, has been authorised by ordinary resolution.
- (d) Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more directors to offices or employments with the company (or any body corporate in which the company is interested), the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In such case, each of the directors concerned (if not debarred from voting under article 11.(3)(c)(vi)) shall be entitled to vote, and be counted in the quorum, in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment or the fixing or variation of the terms thereof

If a question arises at any time as to whether any interest of a director prevents him from voting, or being counted in the quorum, under this article, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive, except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such director (so far as is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed. If any such question shall arise in respect of the chairman of the meeting, the question shall be decided by resolution of the directors and the resolution shall be conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the chairman of the meeting (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the directors

11 (4)

- (a) Subject to article 11 (4)(b), if a director, otherwise than by virtue of his position as director, receives information in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to a person other than the company, he shall not be required.
 - (i) to disclose such information to the company or to the directors, or to any director, officer or employee of the company, or
 - (ii) otherwise to use or apply such confidential information for the purpose of or in connection with the performance of his duties as a director.
- (b) Where such duty of confidentiality arises out of a situation in which the director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company, article 11 (4)(a) shall apply only if the conflict arises out of a matter which has been authorised under article 11.(1) above or falls within article 11 (2) above.
- (c) This article is without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse or release the director from disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure may otherwise be required under this article.

11 (5)

- (a) For the purposes of articles 11 (1) to 11 (5)
 - (i) an interest of a person who is connected with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director: and
 - (ii) section 252 of the Companies Act 2006 shall determine whether a person is connected with a director.
- (b) Where a director has an interest which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, the director may, and shall if so requested by the directors, take such additional steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing such conflict of interest, including compliance with any procedures laid down from time to time by the directors for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest generally and/or any specific procedures approved by the directors for the purpose of or in connection with the situation or matter in question, including without limitation:
 - (i) absenting himself from any meetings of the directors at which the relevant situation or matter falls to be considered, and
 - (ii) not reviewing documents or information made available to the directors generally in relation to such situation or matter and/or arranging for such documents or information to be reviewed by a professional adviser to ascertain the extent to which it might be appropriate for him to have access to such documents or information.

- (c) The company may by ordinary resolution ratify any contract, transaction or arrangement, or other proposal, not properly authorised by reason of a contravention of any provisions of articles 11 (1) to 11.(5).

11.6 Regulations 85, 86 and 94 to 98 shall not apply.

12. The directors shall not be subject to retirement by rotation and references to that in regulations 73 to 80 and elsewhere in Table A shall be disregarded.

13. The directors may delegate any of their powers to Lloyds TSB Group plc, or to any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or to any one or more of their respective directors, employees or agents identified either by name, job title or function (any one of whom an "authorised person") or to any committee of one or more authorised persons. Any such authorised person(s) or committee shall have the power to sub-delegate to one or more authorised persons, or to a committee of one or more authorised persons, any of the powers delegated to him, them or it, provided that any authorised person(s) or committee to whom powers have been delegated or sub-delegated shall conform to any conditions which may from time to time be imposed by the person(s) or committee exercising the power of delegation or sub-delegation.

Any reference in Table A to a committee of directors shall be construed as including a committee empowered as above.

Any delegation or sub-delegation of powers may be revoked or varied at any time by the person(s) or committee exercising the power of delegation or sub-delegation. Regulation 72 shall not apply

14 (1) The directors, and any committee of authorised persons, as defined in article 13, may meet by way of video conference or conference telephone or similar equipment designed to allow everybody to take part in the meeting; or by way of a series of video conferences or telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting: Participation in this way shall be treated as being present at the meeting.

(2) A meeting which takes place by a series of video conference calls or telephone calls from the chairman shall be treated as taking place where the chairman is. In other cases, meetings shall be treated as taking place where the largest group of the participants are or, if there is no such group, where the chairman is

15. A resolution in writing signed or approved by fax or by any electronic communication or by telephone and subsequently confirmed in writing or by fax or by electronic communication by not less than 90% of the directors or 90% of those constituting a committee of authorised person, as defined in article 13 as appropriate for the time being in the United Kingdom and entitled to vote thereon shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the directors or committee of authorised persons and may consist of several documents or other such forms of approval in the like form each signed or so approved by one or more directors or authorised persons as appropriate. Regulation 93 shall be amended accordingly

16. No director shall cease to be a director by reason of his being aged 70 or more, and any person who is aged 70 or more may be appointed as a director. No special notice need be given of any resolution for the appointment as a director of a person aged 70 or more, nor shall it be necessary to give to the members notice of the age of any director or of any person proposed to be appointed as a director

THE SEAL

17. Every instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed by one director or some other person appointed by the directors for that purpose and countersigned by the secretary, deputy secretary, senior assistant secretary, assistant secretary or some other person appointed by the directors for the purpose

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the directors shall make such regulations as they think fit governing the custody, use and affixing of the seal.

SECRETARY

- 18 The directors shall from time to time appoint and may remove a secretary or joint secretaries, and may appoint and remove one or more deputy secretary, senior assistant secretary or assistant secretary Regulation 99 shall be modified accordingly.

INDEMNITY

- 19 (1) Subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Act, every director, secretary or other officer of the company shall be indemnified by the company against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of his duties and/or the exercise of his powers and/or otherwise in relation to or in connection with his duties, powers or office. Regulation 118 shall be extended accordingly.

(2) Without prejudice to article 19(1), the directors shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers or employees of any relevant company (as defined in this article) or who are or were at any time trustees of any pension fund or employees' share scheme in which employees of any relevant company are or were interested, including (without prejudice to the generality of this) insurance against any liability incurred by persons in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of their powers and/or otherwise in relation to their duties, powers or offices in relation to any relevant company, or any pension fund or employees' share scheme.

(3) For the purpose of this article, "relevant company" shall mean the company, any holding company of the company or any other body, whether or not incorporated, in which the company or the holding company or any of the predecessors of the company or of the holding company has or had any interest whether direct or indirect or which is in any way allied to or associated with the company, or any subsidiary undertaking of the company or of the other body.

POWERS OF THE HOLDING COMPANY

- 20 The following provisions shall apply, and to the extent of any inconsistency shall have over-riding effect as against all other provisions of these articles or of the regulations-

- (a) the holding company may at any time and from time to time appoint any person to be a director or remove from office any director however appointed, but so that the removal from office shall be deemed an act of the company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between the relevant director and the company; and
- (b) any or all powers of the directors shall be restricted in the way and to the extent that the holding company may by notice to the company from time to time prescribe.

Any appointment, removal or consent shall be in writing served on the company and signed on behalf of the holding company. No person dealing with the company shall be concerned to see or enquire as to whether the powers of the directors have been in any way restricted or as to whether any requisite consent of the holding company has been obtained, and no obligation incurred or security given or transaction effected by the company to or with any third party shall be invalid or ineffective unless the third party had at the time express notice that the incurring of the obligation or the giving of the security or the effecting of the transaction was in excess of the powers of the directors.

PART II

PREFERENCE AND ORDINARY SHARES

21 (1) The rights attaching to the preference share and the ordinary shares shall be as follows:

- (a) the holder of a preference share shall be entitled (in priority to any payment of dividend on the ordinary shares) to a floating rate cumulative preferential dividend (a "preference dividend") to be paid, if and insofar as there are profits of the company available for such payment, on each interest payment date [such term, together with the terms "interest period", "rate of interest" (including, for this purpose, any "substituted rate"), "compulsory interest payment date" and "arrears of interest" having the respective meanings ascribed thereto in the conditions (the "conditions") relating to the United States $750,000,000 primary capital undated floating rate notes of the company (the "notes") which are constituted by a trust deed dated 14 May 1985 between the company and The Law Debenture Corporation p.l.c. in respect of the interest period ending on the day immediately preceding such interest payment date, but no preference dividend shall be payable on such date unless such interest payment date is a compulsory interest payment date: the amount of any preference dividend which is not so payable shall accumulate and shall be payable (if and insofar as there are profits of the company available for the purpose) as though the same were arrears of interest in respect of the notes in accordance with the conditions and (in the event of the winding up of the company) shall in any event be paid in priority to the making of any payment to the holders of the ordinary shares Subject thereto and to any special rights which may be attached to any other class of shares, the profits of the company available for dividend and resolved to be distributed shall be distributed by way of dividend among the holders of the ordinary shares.
- (b) the amount of the preference dividend in respect of a preference share shall, in respect of any interest period, be the sterling equivalent (computed as of the date for payment) of the amount in United States dollars equal to the interest accrued on a daily basis from and including the interest payment date on which such interest period commenced (or, if later, the day on which such share is allotted) to but excluding the next interest payment date calculated at the rate of interest on the aggregate United States dollar principal amount of the notes outstanding on the former interest payment date divided by the number of preference shares allotted on or before such date. The preference dividend shall be calculated on the basis of the number of days in the interest period concerned divided by 360. In the event of a winding up of the company, the amount of the preference dividend shall be calculated as provided in the conditions by the trustee or the liquidator as if the provisions therein contained continued after the commencement of such winding up.
- (c) on a return of assets on a winding up, the assets of the company available for distribution among the members shall be applied first in repaying to the holder of a preference share in lieu of the amounts paid up (or credited as paid up) on such share the sterling equivalent (computed as of the date for payment) of the amount in United States dollars equal to the principal amount of the notes outstanding at the date of the commencement of the winding up and arrears of interest and interest accrued on such principal amount up to and including the day prior to the date of commencement of the winding up of the company together with a sum equal to the amount of any arrears or deficiency of the preference dividend thereon, to be calculated down to the actual day of the payment and to be payable irrespective of whether or not such preference dividend has been earned, divided by the number of preference shares allotted on or before such day. The balance of such assets, subject to any other class of shares, shall be distributed to each holder of the ordinary shares rateably by reference to the proportion of ordinary share capital held by that holder, relative to the aggregate total issued ordinary share capital, and

- (d) for the purposes of this article, references to amounts paid up (or credited as paid up) on a preference share or to a preference share having been allotted shall include references to amounts deemed to be paid up (or credited as paid up) or, as the case may be, to preference shares deemed to have been allotted (on deemed conversion of the notes) by virtue of the conditions.
- (2) The company may from time to time create and issue further preference shares ranking as regards participation in the profits and assets of the company pari passu and rateably with (but not in priority to) the preference share (notwithstanding that the dividend rights, the currency by reference to which payments are calculated or any other rights pertaining to such further preference shares may be different from those attached to the preference share) and the issue of such further preference shares shall not constitute a variation of the rights attaching to a preference share
- (3) Any subdivision of a preference share into shares of a smaller amount or any subsequent consolidation and division thereof into shares of some other amount or cancellation of any unissued preference share or conversion of any preference share into stock shall constitute a variation of the rights attaching to a preference share
- (4) A preference share shall not confer on the holder thereof any right to receive notice of, attend or vote at general meetings of the company and references in these articles to "member", "shareholder" and "holder" in relation to receiving notice of, attending or voting at general meetings of the company shall be construed accordingly
- (5) The rights attaching to the series II preference shares shall be as follows:
- (a) the holder of a series II preference share shall be entitled (in priority to any payment of dividend on the ordinary shares) to a fixed rate non-cumulative preferential dividend at a rate of 6% per annum to be paid, if and insofar as there are profits of the company available for such payment, in equal instalments on 1 March, 1 June, 1 September and 1 December, or if such day is not a business day, the first available business day thereafter, such a day being one where the banks in London are open for business. No preference dividend shall be payable on such date if the directors have determined that prudent capital ratios would not be maintained if payment of the dividend were made;
 - (b) on a return of assets on a winding up, the assets of the company available for distribution among the members shall be applied first in repaying the holder of the preference share, the series II preference shares and any other preference shares from time to time issued by the company ranking equally therewith in the amounts paid up plus any accrued but unpaid dividend thereon (or credited as paid up) on such share (or as otherwise provided in the terms of such shares); and
 - (c) the series II preference shares shall be redeemable at the option of the company at such time and date as the directors may determine.
- (6) The rights attaching to the series III preference shares (including the rights of redemption) shall be as the directors may determine from time to time.
